GOV. PHILIPP GIVES STATE WAR RECORD

TELLS OF WISCONSIN'S GLORIOUS ACHIEVEMENTS IN GREAT WORLD STRUGGLE.

READS MESSAGE TODAY

Lays Emphasis Upon Necessity of Legislation to Secure Employment
For Returning Soldiers.

BY FRED L. HOLMES

Madison, Wis., Jan. 8.—Gov. Philipp's message glories in the achievements of Wisconsin in the world war. The Sage state furnished a total of 128,000 men, he says. Of this number 15,000 were members of the Wisconsin National Guard and enlistments; 10,000 were enlistments in the regular army and navy; 30,000 were called under the draft and 10,000 enlisted from other states. Considerable emphasis is laid on his message read by him to the legislature today on the necessity of securing employment for returning soldiers.

Among the specific recommendations in the message are:

Creation of a state board to operate during the period of reconstruction to determine whether the wage which is being paid is reasonable compensation in view of the selling price of a laborer's product.

Reform of Return of Railways.

Asks that the legislature pass a resolution demanding lower rates of transportation between service, both freight and passenger, and a return of the railroads of this country to the owners as soon as possible.

Adoption of the National Guard system of military training in this state.

Would eliminate the teaching of foreign languages in graded and common schools. It should be continued to be taught in high schools and colleges for cultural and commercial reasons.

Marketing commission should be created, but it should be given power to control the present system of state insurance created by the 1911 legislature.

Would strengthen Blue Sky Law.

Strengthen "Blue Sky" law so that the people will elect delegates to a convention, which will select candidates.

Keep the expenses of government within the income.

Enact a drainage law.

Shorten the session as much as possible; the people demand it.

Promises to take the legislature out of the cut-over lands and other subjects.

"It is quite generally maintained that the first step towards Americanization is to teach the foreigner the English language. It is a debatable question whether the mere understanding of the language is a guaranty of good citizenship. I am, however, in full accord with the thought that we should make a strong but not an oppressive effort in that direction. I recommend that you create such other

BUCKMASTER LIFTS CITY DANCING BAN

Large Decline in Number of Influenza Cases Prompts City Health Officer to Allow Dancing Again.

Great has been the decrease in the number of influenza cases in the city the past few days that City Health Officer Dr. Buckmaster this morning announced that the ban on public dancing is lifted. This announcement will be greeted with delight by local dance lovers who have been unable to enjoy the pastime for the past eight days.

In lifting the ban on dance halls, Dr. Buckmaster acted after a careful investigation in which he found that the number of influenza cases had become so few that it was not necessary to prohibit dancing.

All of the doctors report very few cases, some having none at all.

15,000 SHIP WORKERS STRIKE IN NEW YORK; TRAFFIC IS TIED UP

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

New York, Jan. 9.—With approximately 15,000 men affected, the strike of the Marine Workers' affiliation went into effect here at 6 o'clock this morning.

At that hour ferry boats, steam lighters, tow boats, coal barges, grain boats and other harbor craft were at a standstill, according to the strike leaders.

The strike was ordered yesterday when a conference of the union men and the Boat Owners association ended, following the refusal of the latter to arbitrate the question of an eight-hour day.

While the strike has not as yet been extended to coastwise steamers, coastwise tug boats and tug boats are said by the labor leaders that it might eventually spread to those lines and throw out of employment 40,000 longshoremen and freight handlers.

The tie up, according to strike leaders and transportation officials, brings New York to a crisis as regards food and coal and they predict that within 24 hours the milk situation here would be much more serious.

States Island was completely isolated by the strike. More of the ferries between New York and New Jersey points also were suspended.

Police reserves were hurried from two stations to the ferry house of the Central Railroad of New Jersey when laborers employed at Port Newark, N. J., became unruly.

Buenos Aires, Jan. 9.—All trans-Atlantic shipping has been suspended until the harbor strike is ended.

U. S. Railroad Tied Up.

New York, Jan. 9.—Crews of 150 railway men joined the harbor strike today, enforcing suspension of all marine operations of the railroad administration.

Police officers, and that with ferries and lighters, 1,200 road craft were idle.

U. S. May Take Hold.

Washington, Jan. 9.—Secretaries Daniels and Baker called into conference today representatives of the railroad administration and shipping board to consider the New York harbor strike situation. It was intimated that some definite action might be expected during the day.

Reports were current before the day was over that the navy and the war department would take over operation of all harbor facilities.

War labor board officials said the board had exhausted its powers in efforts to adjust the difficulties between harbor workers and their employers and could do nothing but let the strike take its course until a favorable situation developed.

PEACE TALK POSTPONED UNTIL LATER

LOYD GEORGE AND ORLANDO
UNABLE TO ATTEND
CONFERENCE AS PLANNED.

FRENCH CABINET MEETS

Premiers' Will Deal with More Than
General Principles at Preliminary Meeting.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

Paris, Jan. 9.—President Wilson's conference with the premiers of Great Britain, France and Italy, which was open today, have been delayed and probably will not begin before early next week.

Lloyd George is detained in London and Premier Orlando of Italy who is here today will probably return to Rome.

There will, however, be a meeting today at the office of M. Pichon, foreign minister. It will be attended by Mr. Wilson, Premier Orlando and Japanese representatives, but it will be informal because of the absence of Lloyd George.

The delegates then will be in a position when Lloyd George arrives to complete the preliminary work for the opening conferences on Monday and Tuesday.

It is not expected there will be a long debate at the conferences.

German Problems First.

As regards questions concerning enemy countries, it is understood that those concerning Germany will be taken up first, then those of Austria-Hungary, and finally those relative to Bulgaria and Turkey. These details will probably not be decided upon until the league of nations part of the program has been exhausted, however.

It is not expected that the premiers' conference will deal with more than the most general principles of the peace settlement. In fact, it now seems doubtful if more than a broad, general agreement will be reached before President Wilson returns to the United States.

Out of the coming conferences it is expected that a more or less tentative program will be adopted which will divide the work of the peace congress into successive steps. The actual making of peace with the central powers may be the last of these steps.

Method of Procedure.

The procedure now being discussed is roughly as follows:

First, a general agreement between the United States and the entire belligerents for the creation of a league of nations or similar machinery to enforce the terms of peace and preserve it.

Second, the setting up of new independent states, setting out of the war bonds came light today when Lester Cregan and James Tunney, 20 years old, were arrested, charged with being accomplices of Cornelius Cregan, 19, in the crime.

Third, the assessment of damages and indemnities and the manner of their payment.

Fourth, the conclusion of peace treaties with the central powers.

Wilson as Premier.

Referring to the conferences as being between the chiefs of the entente governments, the French premier, Georges Clemenceau, said that it is nothing more or less than a meeting—perhaps a last—of the higher allied war committee. It is pointed out that the French premier is composed of the premiers and foreign ministers of the allies, Mr. Wilson figuring as American Premier.

Question of Time.

At this point, the question of how long the peace congress will wait for the central powers to arrange their governments. It is pointed out by some of those working on the problem that the close work of Austria can complete their governmental machinery until it is determined that the two peoples desire in this matter.

There is always the possibility that the American government might appear to give assurance that obligations undertaken will be carried out by the nations represented at the congress could give notice that it would insist on certain points, to assist in the formation of orderly governments and at the same time begin to collect revenues to apply on the bill of damages. Such action if taken, would be only a last resort.

Official Outline Not Given.

No official outline has been given to show what the United States would agree to do in carrying out the program, but by some of the best informed as to the lines along which Mr. Wilson and the peace commissioners are working believe it is the purpose of the United States to go further into the adjustment of European affairs than to secure general adherence to the principles already laid down by President Wilson.

French Delegates Named.

Paris, Jan. 9.—Official announcement was made today that the council of ministers had approved the nominations as the French representatives in the peace congress of the following:

Georges Clemenceau, the premier.

Stephen Pichon, foreign minister.

Louis Lucien Klotz, finance minister.

Andre Tardieu, French high commissioner to the United States.

Jules Cambon, former ambassador at Berlin.

The peace treaties may be left to the last because none of the agreements can bind the central powers unless, in the meantime, they have established governments which qualify the peace congress as to their stability and purpose of carrying out the treaties made.

Clemenceau and Venezolo Confer.

Paris, Jan. 9.—Premier Clemenceau of France and Premier Venezolo of Greece, were in conference this morning with the American delegation to the peace congress.

French Submit Program.

Paris, Jan. 9.—A French protocol, giving a detailed program of the procedure of the peace conference, has been submitted to the American and other delegates by whom it now is under consideration.

BRITISH DELEGATE TO CONFERENCE
DECLARES INITIAL

WANT PEACE INSURED

Organization Would Afford Proper
Treatment of International Questions.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

Paris, Jan. 8.—Robert Cecil, who arrived here with the first section of the British peace delegation, expressed the opinion to the Associated Press today that the definite organization of a League of Nations is indispensable as a first step toward the conclusion of that enduring peace and a satisfactory settlement of international problems which have arisen out of the war.

Lord Robert made it clear that his statements were personal views and not an attempt to give the views of the British government.

"A league of nations is necessary as the initial step in the peace negotiations," said Lord Robert. "It is not necessary to insure peace but also for the proper treatment of many international questions which must be considered by the peace congress."

Joint international action is an organized and recognized form is necessary to relieve millions of people who are at this moment destitute of food and other necessities of life; to regulate permanently many vital common interests such as international railways, posts, waterways, telegraph, the use of the air; public health and the protection of women and juveniles in industry; and to discharge adequately and justly the responsibilities of the great civilized nations in such a great matter as the protection and guidance of backward peoples. It is the sum of all these recognized joint activities, interests and responsibilities which will be given by the name of 'League of Nations.'"

"It is our business to give this league definite form here and now."

THEFT OF $350,000 WORTH OF LIBERTY BONDS UNEARTHED

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

New York, Jan. 9.—A theft of $350,000 worth of liberty and industrial bonds came to light today when Lester Cregan and James Tunney, 20 years old, were arrested, charged with being accomplices of Cornelius Cregan, 19, in the crime.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

Extreme weakness in the corn market quickly followed Mr. Stream's statement. Prices fell 2 1/2 and 7 1/2 a bushel as compared with twenty-four hours before. The close was at the lowest figures of the day with January 14 1/2 and May 1 1/2.

RAIL HEAD URGES U. S. REGULATION

T. DE WITT CUYLER, CHAIRMAN OF EXECUTIVES, SUBMITS
PLAN TO COMMITTEE.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

Chicago, Jan. 9.—Attorneys for the five socialists convicted in federal court of conspiracy to obstruct the government's war program began today the preparation of arguments in support of their motion for a new trial, which will be heard two weeks from today before Judge Landis. Should the motion for a new trial be denied, the five men who are now out under bonds of $10,000 each, will be at once sentenced. The law provides for penalties for one to twenty years imprisonment or from $1,000 to $10,000 fine or both.

The verdict of guilty was returned by the jury late yesterday after five hours deliberation.

The verdict was a surprise to the accused socialist leaders particularly to Victor L. Berger, congressman-elect and editor of the Milwaukee Leader. His associates in the trial are Adolph Germer, National secretary for the socialist party; William F. Kruse, National secretary of the Young Peoples' socialist party; J. Louis English, editor of the American Socialist; and Irwin St. John Tucker, socialist propagandist.

The plan includes provision for merging systems, a large measure of unification of operation, pooling of facilities and in certain cases of earnings and enforcement of adequate service under supervision of a secretary of transportation, a new cabinet office with the interstate commerce commission acting as a supreme court of review of rate disputes.

Provides Adjustment Board.

Wage and employment disputes which could not be settled between employees and management would be referred to an adjustment board within the department of transportation under the plan, and strikes and lockouts would be prohibited.

Most operating reforms effected during unified management by the railroad administration would be continued. The executive committee of the General Railroad Employees' union, headed by General McAdoo's proposal for five year extension of government control. Their suggestions are similar to the recommendations of the interstate commerce commission presented to the senate at hearings earlier this week.

"The fundamental and essential purpose to be accepted is to furnish the public with safe, efficient and adequate transportation at the lowest cost consistent with such service," said Mr. Cuyler, reading to the committee a prepared statement. "And with due regard to the just interests of the owners and employees and also adequate to the nation's needs even in times of great national emergency or peril."

Asks Adequate Service.

He declared that whatever plan or policy should be adopted, provision should be made for adequate service for the country's needs, for necessary construction with prevention of waste by injudicious road building; for consolidation when dictated by public interest and for a rate structure which will provide sufficient revenues and create sufficient credit to accomplish these purposes.

To this end, said Mr. Cuyler, private management and control of the American railways, should, as a matter of national policy, be continued.

LOCAL YOUTH FOUGHT IN MANY BIG BATTLES

Allen Dearborn Has Been on Every Front With Rainbow Division at Chateau Thierry and Later Took Sedan.

Allen Dearborn is one of the few Janesville boys fortunate enough to have taken part in all of the big American battles of the war. As member of Battery E, 145th Field Artillery, Rainbow Division, he visited every front and saw nearly a year of active service. In a letter to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Dearborn, he gives a brief sketch of his experiences in France. His letter follows:

"Well, my second Thanksgiving away from home has come and gone, but this year we all have so much for which to be thankful; and best of all I know that I am coming back home. My Thanksgiving was a pretty affair at that. We had a good dinner here at the hospital and in the evening I was invited over to a hospital nearby and they had a splendid meal and a fine entertainment in the evening for us.

"We have a minstrel show here at the hospital and it certainly has made a hit. There are about four special numbers and in one of the numbers I gave a musical reading which I composed myself entitled 'My Pal Jimmy.' It is a little war reading and it goes across in pretty good style. I was booked up for the next eight nights. Tonight we play at the theater here in Toul and next Saturday we are going to Nancy. There is some chance of my showing in Paris, but I don't know and it takes our minds off the army to a certain extent and that is a great relief. There have been three thousand people or more at each entertainment.

"I haven't had any mail now for three months. It's bad and I tell you I'm worried when I think of all the sickness prevalent in the state. I can't understand what is the trouble with the mail system and I only hope that you are receiving my letters. Owing to the new ruling in regard to the censorship I can tell you the difference we have been in.

"The Rainbow division has been on every front in France and was the first American division to take over a trench sector. We made our entrance into the front line on the 24th of last February in the Lorraine and Baccarat sectors. In July, about the 1st, we went for the first time under General Gouraud, the great one-armed French general, we repulsed the fifth great German offensive and where we defeated the great Prussian Guard regiment in a hand-to-hand encounter in one of the most stubborn and bloody battles of the war.

"On the 15th day of July we left for Chateau Thierry and were there for the 10th of August. Here we had the greatest fight the Americans have ever been in. Our division drove the Boche back for a distance of twenty miles. And was the last division that fought that great battle over the Ourcq river at the town of Fere en Tardenois. We left Chateau Thierry and took part in the big St. Mihiel drive, and it was taken by the 1st division. From Verdun the division went into the Argonne forests and it was our division along with the 1st division that at the close of the war captured the town of Metz.

"All in all there are just four divisions over here that have seen real fighting. They are the 1st, 2nd (which includes the 5th and 6th marines), the 26th, and the 42nd.

"There are some other fine outfits over here, but they did not arrive in time for the big show. I understand that the 32nd division, which is made up of the 64th and 65th regiments, have done some great work with the British.

"This is just a detailed sketch of where we have been, but, I can tell you so much more about my military home. I am counting the days until my return."

NEW POLAND MAY BE BORN AMID BLOODSHED

New Poland may be born amid vast bloodletting. The Poles are ambitious to incorporate in their new kingdom or republic territories from the Baltic far south into Austria and Russia, and as a result are facing possibilities of war on all sides.

A Polish army, sent from France, has occupied Danzig, the Baltic port demanded by the Poles as an outlet to the sea. Field Marshal Hindenburg, under orders from the Ebert government of Germany, is massing an army in Posen and East and West Prussia to hold these German provinces "at any cost." The Poles and Germans have broken relations and a clash is considered near.

In Galicia, the Poles are having frequent clashes with the Ruthenians.

BOYS' WORK RESERVE WEEK, JANUARY 20-26

William B. Wilson, secretary of labor, has requested the governors of the various states to set aside the week beginning Monday, January 20, as National Enrollment Week for the United States Boys' Working Reserve. Service that aided so materially in food production on the farms last summer.

In his statement designating the week of January 20-26 as enrollment week, the secretary says the work of a special week in order to bring to the attention of the young men of the nation the all but overwhelming need of impoverished Europe, is so obvious that it requires no accentuation from me. A very large part of the task of rebuilding a devastated world belongs to the young men of this nation. It is not enough that the whole nation shall have been mobilized to win the great war; it is vital that the whole nation shall be mobilized to help broken Europe to its feet and to set it once more into the paths of felicitous progress.

"I trust that the young men of the country of 16 years and over, not now permanently employed, and especially the boys in our high schools, will respond to this new appeal as they so finely responded to that other appeal made to them one year ago; that they will enter heartily into the work of bringing relief to populations appallingly destitute; and that they will join the U. S. Boys' Reserve to finish what has been so well begun. The war has been won. The far more difficult task remains to secure for the highest interest of mankind, the fruits of victory."

Legend of the Garnet.
The Indians who live in Arizona have a great deal of sentiment about the garnet mines, it is said, and there are numerous legends concerning it, one of which is that centuries ago on a cold winter night the little daughter of a great Indian chief died, and as she passed away Indians standing outside the place where she lay noticed an immense multitude of sparks that flew up from the chief's chimney and settled upon the mountain side, where they shone as brightly as stars, never growing cold and dead.

Later they sank into the earth and formed the garnets that gem the entire mountain.

The school dramatic society was giving its first performance of the season and the play they had chosen for the momentous occasion was "Julius Caesar."
All went smoothly till Caesar's dead body was brought in, and Marc Antony had to deliver his famous speech.
He put his heart into the part and the audience felt acutely for the poor citizens, who were all presumably horror-stricken and overcome with grief, when Antony gently bdt firmly grasped, as he thought, the face-cloth and slowly, very slowly, began to draw it back.
Just then an excited whisper came from the other end of the corpse: "This end, you idiot!"
But Antony was too much wrapped in grief to hear. He persevered and then suddenly disclosed to the intently gazing audience, Caesar's boots!

How a Father Has Learned to Save Shoe Bills.

"My son is very hard on shoes, so keeping him properly shod has been quite an expense to me," writes Mr. J. Allison Allen, of Amity, Arkansas. "But since I started to buy Neolin-soled shoes for him I have found that it costs only about a third as much to keep him in shoes."

This is because Neolin Soles are so tough and durable that they wear a very long time. Shoe bills are kept down because you need not so many pairs.

You can get Neolin-soled shoes at almost any good shoe store. They come in all styles and for all members of the family. Neolin Soles are also available everywhere for re-soles. They are produced by a scientific process to be what soles ought to be: comfortable, waterproof and long-wearing. They are made by The Goodwear Tire & Rubber Company, Akron, Ohio, who also make Wingfoot Heels, guaranteed to outwear any other heels.

educational facilities as are reasonable in their cost, and which you may deem necessary, and that I shall take into account the facilities that are now in existence and that are being carried on at a large cost to the people of the state.

Better Marketing Conditions
"A strong demand has grown up among our farmers for better market conditions. The last legislature approved a commission to study the question, and I hope that the report which will be made soon will offer a reasonable solution. Agriculture is the greatest resource of our state and I feel that the government should do for our farmers that will provide better market facilities and give better prices should be done. Whatever is attempted along this line should be done, though, so that it gives the assurance of being successful. It will do no good to merely create a commission without some definite plan of how the market facilities are going to be improved."

"For two sessions I have advocated a revision of the primary law. I think it is fair to say that it is generally conceded that in its present form the law is not a success. I have proposed to regard the party convention the proper agency to fix its party principles and nominate its candidates, and the only valid objection that was urged against the plan was that it would cause the nomination of the delegates. In order to obviate that feature of the convention system which brought it into disrepute I suggest that you should frame your constitution so that it will be elected by the people at the regular spring election in the same manner as they cast their ballot for their township and municipal officers. The election of delegates to the state convention should be limited to state officers, United States Senators and members of congress."

"So far as my influence goes in the matter of expenditures, I shall continue to make upon all reasonable economy and shall endeavor to keep state expenditures within our income, which I regard as a liberal sum with which to carry on our state government."

Lands For Soldiers
After reviewing the war record of Wisconsin, the work of the draft boards and the food administration, Gov. Philipp said he was glad to be operating with the federal government that state lands be purchased in Wisconsin.

"I have suggested to the secretary of the interior, Mr. Clegg, that the lands be purchased by the United States government and that in addition to the land there be advanced to each soldier a sufficient sum of money to enable him to clear at least forty acres and erect the necessary buildings and purchase the live stock, the idea being that the government would own the land and property and give the soldier a reasonable time to earn the money to pay his indebtedness to the government. Inasmuch as the soldier has rendered so much service to the nation, it is only fair that the government should give him an opportunity to establish himself in fact a national obligation and should as a matter of right, be assumed by the federal government. Whether the plan which I have suggested or some other plan be adopted is a matter that congress must decide. I, however, would be confident that it would be done, Wisconsin will be glad to do her part."

"I ask you to pass resolutions recognizing the services rendered by our Wisconsin soldiers and our particular stress upon the valor of our soldiers and the patriotism of our people, in order that the splendid work which has been accomplished by our soldiers and the records and placed in the archives of this state for the information of future generations."

Plenty of Work
"In my judgment the most difficult problem of reconstruction is to bring all prices down to a normal level. It is an abundance of work in sight for all the years to come. Public and private building has been delayed and railroads require the expenditure of vast sums of money in betterments and building the new extensions. However, much of this necessary work will be delayed until it can be done for normal prices. In which it will be better to all concerned if the reduction in the cost of production will be brought by an understanding between capital and labor than to have it forced upon us by a stagnation in business and enforced upon us by stagnation of idleness."

"The reduction in the cost of production must necessarily carry with it a corresponding reduction in the cost of living, and to meet this situation fairly, which I believe must be done, the employer's profit, the employee's wages, the cost of food, the cost of distribution and the distribution of the product must be on a fair share of the product. The important object to be accomplished is to bring about a peace basis without friction between capital and labor. Neither side should be permitted to take advantage of the other and all men should appreciate that the one thing to avoid at this time is business paralysis and enforced idleness."

Favors Labor Board
"I believe it would be helpful during the period of reconstruction if labor could be given access to a state board which might determine whether or not it is necessary to pay a reasonable compensation in view of the selling price of labor's product. I feel confident that a statement from state authority that the rate of pay offered is a fair compensation based upon the value of the product produced would go far toward maintaining a satisfactory relation between capital and labor."

"I recommend that you pass an act creating a commission, to consist of manufacturers and laborers, which shall have power to investigate business conditions or business that employs and determine whether the wages offered are a reasonable compensation for the services performed, and whether the rate paid is all that can reasonably be expected to be paid under existing business conditions and the price obtainable for the product manufactured; also whether the wages offered are sufficient to guarantee fair living under the conditions existing including the price of food."

"I believe it to be a general demand among the people that the transportation back to some where near the home over by the government for war purposes. It will be helpful to our members of congress to put this important question and I recommend that you pass a resolution demanding lower rates of transportation, better service, both in freight and passenger, and a return of the railroads of this and a return to their owners just as soon as it is possible to do so."

Military Training in Schools
"On a former occasion I recommended that military training be introduced in our high schools. It could be given without interference with the time the young boy must give to his studies, and aside from the value of training for his future military training and its equivalent to a good physical training and it has the further value of teaching the young man discipline and obedience. My former suggestion was opposed by many educators and received no consideration at the hands of the legislature. I call your attention to it again, and recommend that you give the subject your serious thought. No doubt congress will consider the matter of creating a national army and whatever action it takes must in the end control us. It is an important matter and an expression by you to our members of congress would, I am sure, be of value as they would regard it as a word from the people upon this important subject."

The whole history of foreign language studies in Wisconsin will be dealt with in the message by the governor. He told of the first laws passed and of the amendments to that law that have been made in the past seventy years.

"It is my opinion," continued Gov. Philipp, "that we should consider this subject purely. In the interest of our children, I believe that foreign language should not be taught in the public schools or graded schools of the state. We should adjust the course in those schools to fit the greatest needs of those children who are to be broadminded. In our high schools and colleges we should, however, continue to teach foreign languages. We should do this for several reasons. We cannot afford to become a one language country. In our private and parochial schools a sufficient course of English should be given. This should include reading, writing, American history and civics. I maintain that a language is the property of the people and not of the government. All that is good in the future must be buried in today, future generations will resurrect it though the government under which it flourished be destroyed."

RAILWAY EXECUTIVES FAVOR RETURNING ROADS TO OWNERS

sonableness and adequacy of rates and concerning discrimination and would control improvements.

"No new or branch lines of railroad or of large and expensive terminals should not be constructed unless a certificate of public convenience and necessity is first obtained from the secretary of transportation. The executive and administrative functions of the interstate commerce commission, except as to accounting and as to federal taxation of railroad properties should be transferred to the secretary of transportation.

"The carriers should have the power to initiate rate schedules, which should be filed with the interstate commerce commission with the secretary of transportation, and with the state commission in which the rates are applicable."

The secretary of transportation must approve the rates, let them go into effect without approval, or suspend them and refer the matter to the interstate commerce commission for determination. The commission might also hear complaints by shippers or others, and have authority to prescribe minimum as well as maximum rates.

Rates Should Be Reasonable.
Mr. Cuyler's statement specified that "the statute itself should provide the rule of rate-making and should require that rates be not only reasonable but adequate and sufficient to enable the carriers to provide safe, adequate and sufficient service to protect existing investment and attract new capital necessary in the public interest."

It was declared further that the "statute should provide that existing rates, put into effect by the director continued in effect until changed by the interstate commerce commission as provided by law," or through initiation of new rates by roads. Express rates should be dealt with in the same manner as freight rates.

Regional Federal Rate Tribunals.
"Regional federal rate tribunals," said Mr. Cuyler, "might be created in this manner."

Suggests Regional Divisions.
The interstate commerce commission should divide the United States into a number of regions for each of which the president should appoint a regional commission which should be a board of primary jurisdiction consisting of one member for each state in the region. The regional commissions should have authority to determine all complaints and to report to the interstate commerce commission. If no objection is made to the interstate commerce commission within a limited time and the commission does not overrule the lower tribunals, the regional commissions should automatically go into effect.

The railroad executives' plan provides for federal incorporation of interstate carriers, for government supervision of security issues, and for founding by the government of federal indebtedness growing out of federal operations should be dealt with in the same manner as freight rates.

Board Powers for Secretary.
Board supervisory powers should be granted the secretary of transportation said Mr. Cuyler. These would include authority to require re-routing of interstate carriers, to eliminate congestion, to require common use of terminals, to compel complete unification in war times or other periods of national emergency, to require roads to distribute cars among patrons fairly and to require roads to distribute cars among patrons fairly and to require roads to distribute cars among patrons fairly.

Roosevelt was expressed today at the headquarters of every division in the army of occupation by the firing of a salute of twenty-one guns. At three o'clock this afternoon every American flag in Rhineland Prussia was lowered to half staff.

"DARK TOWN FOLLIES" AT MYERS THEATRE

"From Dixie to Broadway" was thoroughly enjoyed by all who witnessed their performance at the Myers Theatre last evening.

The "Dark Town Follies" in their latest production "From Dixie to Broadway" were highly entertaining and afforded lots of wholesome enjoyment to the audience. The musical numbers were unusually good as was the dancing and comedy.

The cast included some well known colored performers as Quaintan Miller, Eddie Green, Jimmy Howell, Chas. Howell, Chas. Hightower, Fanny Wise and Billie Young. They assisted very well by a chorus of twenty pretty colored girls.

ROOSEVELT MEMORIAL SERVICE AT CAPITOL PLANNED FOR FEB. 9

Washington, Jan. 8.—Steps toward a memorial service for President Roosevelt, Feb. 9, in honor of Col. Roosevelt, were taken today in congress. The senate unanimously adopted a resolution by Senator Wadsworth of New York providing for a joint session and authorizing committees to make the arrangements and invite the president, supreme court justices, members of the cabinet and other officials to participate.

Whitewater News

Whitewater, Jan. 9.—Mrs. Albert Salisbury received a telegram yesterday informing her of the death of her son-in-law, Isaac Peterson, at Los Angeles, Calif. The news comes as a shock to the many warm friends of Mr. Peterson. He died of a heart attack. Mrs. Peterson spent the holidays in Whitewater and had only reached California when death occurred. For several years Mr. Peterson had been a member of the town, Peterson and company publishing house, Chicago.

Miss Ethel B. Johnson, who last June severed her connection with Whitewater normal as physical director of girls, spent last summer at Reed College, Portland, Ore., studying reconstruction work. She has recently been assigned to the Harvard medical school to continue the practice.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hagstrom left Tuesday for Milwaukee to make their home indefinitely. Mr. Hagstrom for the past few months has been athletic director of the normal S. A. T. C. Mr. Harry Fowler spent Tuesday in Milwaukee.

Dewey Kading, who has been in the naval service the past year, is now at St. Cloud, Minn., and expects to be home in a short time on a ten day furlough.

Doubtless.

Paris, Jan. 9.—Jacques Louis Dumensil, a secretary of aviation has resigned, it is announced here.

EXTREMISTS HOLD BERLIN GOVERNMENT, REPORT FROM PARIS

The Spartacists thus appear still to be working with the socialists of the left, or independents.

The dispatch would seem to indicate the possibility that the new government, the so-called "left" one, the Ebert-Scheidemann government and has not displaced it as today's advances, through Paris, report.

Called Great Tragic Comedy.
Paris, Jan. 7 (10 p. m.).—The curtain is still up on the great tragic comedy, "Berlin the madhouse!" as a majority socialist editor called it. The "Unter den Linden" Wilhelmstrasse, the Seigfriedstrasse and other streets have been jammed all day by masses of people who at intervals fled into the side streets and sheltering doorways to escape the rain of bullets from both sides.

The shooting reached considerable proportions three times during the afternoon, but the casualties appear to have been few.

The Ebert cabinet was in session nearly all day with caution (Kautsky) Herr Breitscheid, Wilhelm Dittmann, and Oscar Cohen, independent socialist. The cabinet was in session late this evening with additional representatives called "revolutionary" composed of foremen in the factories of greater Berlin under the leadership of George Ledebour. The foremen, although nominally independent socialists, are virtually Spartacists. Notwithstanding their attitude, Dr. Liszkow, the socialist leader, was disavowed in advance any intention of dealing with the government.

The government tonight authorized the Associated Press to say that it had resolved to maintain its attitude and that the time for compromise was past. The government has issued a warning to the foremen that it will make no agreement until the Spartacists surrender the buildings seized unlawfully.

G. O. P. MEETING IN CHICAGO TOMORROW; PROGRAM ANNOUNCED

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Chicago, Jan. 9.—Col. Theodore Roosevelt's death has cast a gloom over the meeting of the republican national committee scheduled for tomorrow. The committee will adopt resolutions on the death of Col. Roosevelt at its meeting, elect national committees in several states where various vacancies exist, decide a contest over the national committee in Louisiana and listen to addresses by Gov. Beckman of Illinois, Senator McKelvie of Nebraska and Gov. Burquist of Minnesota.

A. J. Sweet, will be elected committeeman for Maine; H. P. Kean for New Jersey; R. S. Stewart for Virginia and P. Sullivan for Wyoming.

Chairman Will H. Hays' first act upon his arrival was to cancel the love feast planned for the committee by the Hamilton Club out of respect for the memory of Col. Roosevelt. Chairman Hays in speaking of Col. Roosevelt said:

"The strongest character in the world has died. No one can take Roosevelt's place. In the days of difficulty ahead, in all the readjustment at hand in this country the loss of the brain, the heart and the hand of this man is incalculable. The lesson of his patriotism which will live forever, is his monument."

We Are Not Going to be Disappointed
The famous Winninger players, headed by John D. Winninger himself, are to be with us again—this renowned company will play an engagement of seven nights at the Apollo Theatre on Monday, January 13th. In spite of the many obstacles to be overcome, Mr. Winninger has engaged what is proving to be the best acting company that he has had in years and that is saying a great deal. Mr. Winninger has taken so many actors from the stage and converted the energies of many actresses to other fields that the acquisition of a really good company has become one of a manager's many besetting problems, but Mr. Winninger with his usual foresight and progressiveness, went to New York in the early part of the season and was able

A SQUARE DEAL.
On Monday, December 30th, the Gazette printed an editorial in which was voiced the sentiment that religious services should not be held in the German language in this country
during the period we are still at war,
and the months of reconstruction
following. Unfortunately this editorial,
with some of the commendations,
was taken by leaders of the Lutheran church to implicate the whole Lutheran church in the charge of disloyalty.
Such was not the idea of the original editorial and such is not the idea now.

The protestant world owes too
much to Martin Luther and to the teaching of his religious belief to criticize his church. Luther's original doctrine of what he deemed essential to the human race was just what the Gazette advocated in its editorial
which might have been quoted from
the words of the original document
which sets forth the tenets of the doctrines of Martin Luther when it says:

"Divine service should be held in the language of the country."
Read that line and then ask if the Gazette was not right in demanding that the religious services should be in conformation with the doctrines of the church, which has raised objection
to the editorial in question.

There was no mention of any individual
church or any individual creed.
The one question was the preaching
of the teaching of the German language
in the churches and the schools of religious denominations, where that language is used under the existing war conditions.

It is not necessary to call attention
of the public to the fact that the Lutheran church is not the church
of Prussia. No one is claiming it is.
It is there rubbing over details to make this assertion. Prussia is not Germany and the German Lutheran church has been strong in Saxony,
a principality of Germany, from the time of the Reformation to the present day.

The one question at stake is not an attack upon the Lutheran church on any of its doctrines. The world knows and recognizes them. In this last struggle for democracy against the rule of the Kaiser the members of the Lutheran church did their part like
men. Their pastors worked untiringly
at home and in the camps for the benefit of the boys of their religious belief and the cause of all soldiers in service.

Unfortunately the Lutheran church
was brought into the investigation of the United States senate and the testimony given referred directly to the churches where the German language was taught and preached. That these practices should continue is what the Gazette took issue with and the New York Globe takes up the question of the German problem when it says:
"If there were any signs of contri-
tion for the countless crimes committed it might be different. The defeated army, which murdered and
raped and devastated the fair lands
of France and Belgium, is welcomed
back in Germany as a victorious one and glorified by the people. And in every German home tonight they are probably strutting America and Great Britain and France and Italy just as naughty as ever. The bully is on his back. The flag he flies is white, but his heart is black as ever."
There is the meat of the whole affair.

Germany does not yet admit the defect of its policies and doctrines and too long here in Wisconsin we have permitted this foreign tongue of the present enemy—Germany—to be taught and taught in the schools
of this church. The time to stop it is now.

There is no fight on the part of the Gazette or any other American newspapers to attack the Lutheran church
as a whole, but there is a sentiment,
an opinion that is continually growing, that the preaching of German in any church of whatever religion is preached there is contrary to the good of the community in which it exists.

Take the writings of any American
who has been on the battle front, who witnesses the terrible sufferings of the people of the devastated wastes
the Germans left behind them.
Viewed the wanton destruction of property, the mutilation of the wounded prisoners, the terrible sufferings of the neutrals in the war and
the final culmination of the struggle
with Germany defiant to the end, and even when the Russian Guard returned home, to read the lines of greeting by Premier Ebert when he said:

"Your deeds and sacrifices are unexampled. No enemy overcame you.
Only the preponderance of our enemies in men and material grew
ever heavier did we abandon the struggle."

"You endured indescribable sufferings, accomplished incomparable
deeds, and gave year after year proofs
of your unshakable courage. You protected the homeland from invasion, sheltered your wives, children,
and parents from flames and slaughter, and preserved the nation's workshops and fields from devastation."
"With deepest emotion the homeland thanks you. You can return with heads erect. Never have men
done or suffered more than you."

Martin Luther stood forth and
dared his life for liberty of worship
and that worship to be preached and
taught in the language of the country. That is all the Gazette stands
for. Let religion be taught and preached in the language of the country. In some cases it would be hard to inflict this at once. Here in Janesville, Rev. Fuchs preaches one sermon a month in English, educating
his people to the use of English entirely, because his church has long been a German church in language.

Others may be the same and we should have sympathy with them.

While no church was mentioned in the original editorial which referred to a general investigation, still
the article has evidently raised a tempest in a tea pot and the leaders of the Lutheran religion are indignant.
Except for the Lutheran church,
where German is preached and taught
at present, the Lutheran church members should not be provoked. Statistcians show they have done their duty
as loyal citizens during the war period
and now advocate the establishment of a policy that the original founders of their language advocated: "Divine
service should be held in the language
of the country."

This is all the Gazette has contended and all should respond to it as the preachings of their church set down
in its formations. So it is in the Scandinavian peninsula, where the Lutheran church is the state church, or in America, where every religion has an equal right, let the worship of God
and the teaching of his doctrines be in the "Language of the country," as Martin Luther advocated.

GERMAN HYPOCRISY.

Prof. Deissmann, professor of the New Testament exegesis, and of the theology of the Greek Bible during the war period when Germany was at its height, was what might be called a bit cocky. Now we see him addressing an appeal to the Archbishop of Canterbury asking for church aid
in restoring the churches in Germany. It is interesting to note that a lay writer is to say in the subject
and we find in the statement of Mr.
Charles Winchley, writing in the London Times, who thinks that "no better
specimen could be found of German hypocrisy than Professor Deissmann's
whining appeal to the Archbishop of Canterbury." Saying also:

"The Prussian theologian desires an age of mutual forgiveness and conciliation." He boasts that he stood from the beginning of the war in the work
for international Christian understanding. Such is his modest attitude
today, when he sees his country defeated. In the brave days of Belgium's agony, Professor Deissmann
thought very little of international Christian understanding. He then
acclaimed loudly the German God,
"The German God," he wrote, "is not only the theme of some of our poets
and prophets, but also a historian like Max Lenz has, with fiery tongue and
in deep thankfulness, borne witness to the revelation of the German God
in our holy war. The German, the national God! Has war in this case
impaired, or has it steered religion?
I say it has steered it. This is no re-lapse to a lower level, but a mourning
up to God himself."

Prof. Deissmann speaks with two voices, and there is no doubt that
his earlier voice alone is sincere.

BERGER GUILTY.

Victor L. Berger, congressman-elect
from Milwaukee, and the recognized
leader of the socialist party in America, and four of his associates were found guilty Thursday of conspiracy
to violate the espionage act.
This announcement decides one of the most important suits brought by the government under this particular
law and settles the perplexing problem of the right of the federal authorities to restrict the actions of individuals or organizations seeking to hinder the carrying out of the laws.
While an appeal, doubtless, has been handed down, still it will preclude the possibility of Mr. Berger
taking his seat in congress and removes the stigma attached to the state where such an organization
which he represented, could gain control of public offices.

VOTES DRY.

Idaho, Maine and Tennessee joined
the honor column yesterday when they voted to accept the federal amendment which would abolish the liquor traffic forever from the United States. Even the senate of the great state of Illinois voted to ratify the amendment by a ballot of 30 to 15,
so there is some hope after all. Now comes Wisconsin. Twenty-two are already lined up and only thirty-six are needed to make it effective.

Wilson now feels assured that the entire world now stands in accord
with his policy for a league of nations, as a guaranty against any future wars. If so his trip to Europe
has been more than a pleasure journey.

Cleaning the ice and snow from sidewalks does not appear to be the trait of the average citizen and pedestrians can slip and slip and fall
to their hearts' content.

Well, the state legislature is now in session. The governor has read his message and everything is set for the music to start. "The grand entré has been made."

Those loyal Russians have waked
up enough to capture some thirty-one thousand Bolsheviks and defeat that arch-traitor, Trotzky, in a pitched battle.

Now comes word from the daughter of the late czar of Russia and she insists her father is alive. If he is it will clear one of the war's mysteries.

Well, certainly the war is over as far as baseball is concerned, for it
has been decided to open the National League games on April 23d next.

Farmers who failed to sell their tobacco when prices were high are wondering if they were as wise as they thought they were.

It is joyous news to learn that it
was the American soldiers that first
broke the famous Hindenburg line.

Roman Warship.

The man-of-war of the ancient Romans had a crew of 225 men, of which 174 were oarsmen, working on three decks. The speed of this vessel was about six knots an hour in fair weather.

"Junker."

"Junker" is a man of some birth and
of inherited property, especially land.
The word is used to describe that large class of Prussians who come of noble, seminoble or at least old and
"good" families, and whose worldly
possessions are such as to give them
an appreciable stake in the government.—Boston Globe.

Just Folks

By EDGAR A. GUEST.

TO THE BOY

I have no wish my little lad,
To climb the towering heights of fame
I am content to be your dad
And share with you each pleasant
game
And walk along life's path with
you
The birds and trees and skies of blue.
Though some may seek the smiles of kings
And use your laughter's joy enough;
I have no wish to claim the things
Which lure men into pathways rough
I'm happiest when you and I
Unmindful of life's bitter cares
Together watch the clouds drift by
Or follow boyhood's thoroughfares.
I crave no more of life than this:
Continuance of such a trust!
Your smile, what's the morning is,
Until my clay returns to dust.
If but this comradeship may last
Until I end my earthly task—
Your hand and mine by love held fast
Fame has no charm for which I'd ask.

I would not trade one day with you
To wear the purple robes of power.
Nor drop your hand from mine to do
Some great deed in a selfish hour.
For you have brought me joy serene
And made my soul supremely glad.
For life rewarded I have been—
'Twas all worth while to be your dad.

WHO'S WHO in the Daily News

BRIG-GEN. PRESTON BROWN.

Brig-Gen. Preston Brown was recently appointed military governor of
the occupied territory in Germany,
with headquarters at Treves. General Brown is a native of Kentucky, being
a son of the late John Mason
Brown and a grandson of Gen.
William Preston, former ambassador to Spain.

Gen. Brown rose from the ranks.
He graduated from Yale 23
years ago and enlisted. He won a second lieutenantcy after he took part in the battle of San Juan hill during the Spanish-American war. Later he was sent to the Philippines, where
his regiment fought Aguinaldo.
After that he came through all the years. Since he has been in France,
he fought in many engagements. At Chateau-Thierry he was responsible for the safe withdrawal of two French divisions, for which Maj-Gen. Omar Bundy recommended him to be a
brigadier general. His appointment as military governor of occupied territory followed.

Changed Subject of Woe.
Irene was crying in bed because her mamma insisted she should wear a certain nightgown. At last mamma
said: "Why, Irene, how foolish to cry
about that! You'll sleep just as well in that gown as any other." She stopped long enough to say, very dissatisfied: "But, mamma, you don't know.
I've changed my mind and I'm crying about another thing now."

$83.45, or about 15 cents a pair. The grease is a good lubricant and the animal blood is sold by M. O. Lamb.
The English chemist who is responsible for these figures, to be equal to

"Diseased Meat."

There is a wide difference in the terms "diseased meat" and "meat from diseased animals." In fresh pork for instance, the absence of live trichinae
cannot be guaranteed by the vendor
from any known practical method of inspection, but if the meat is properly
cooked any trichinae present are killed
and hence cannot produce disease.

has been decided to open the National League games on April 23d next.

It is joyous news to learn that it

broke the famous Hindenburg line.

FIVE NURSES ARE GRADUATED FROM MERCY HOSPITAL

Dean Reilly Gives Diplomas And Compliments Young Women On Achievements.

"Soldiers of Christ" was the title bestowed on the five young women nurses by Dean Reilly last evening when they received their diplomas as graduates from Mercy Hospital. He congratulated the young ladies on the successful completion of their three years' training, and paid a high tribute to the noble profession of nursing which required a readiness to sacrifice both health and life to service. He recalled the splendid work done by the nurses during the present war, and mentioned the fact that sometimes lives had been saved by the skill of the nurses rather than that of physicians.

In giving the diplomas he voiced the hope that their work would prove an inspiration and that they would work for the honor and glory of God, as well as for the love of their neighbor, so as to reflect honor on their high and noble career.

L. A. Avery opened the exercises by speaking briefly on the opportunities for service which the nurse has in the history of the world, had the profession of being a graduate nurse meant so much as it did today.

The five young women who received their diplomas last evening were: Misses Irma Trachsel, Ella Trachsel, Blanche Carney, Nelly Simonson and Anna Carney.

GAZETTE PRAISED BY WHITEWATER NORMAL PRESIDENT

The following letter has been received by the Gazette from A. H. Yoder, president of the Whitewater Normal school.

Dear Sir:—Last November when peace was declared the Janesville Gazette was the first paper to appear in Whitewater. Today when the sad news of the death of Ex-President Roosevelt came, it was again the Gazette which first informed the people of Whitewater. Such enterprise is worthy of commendation. One of our townsmen said to me this afternoon "That won't pay those fellows to send an automobile and a couple of boys to Whitewater to sell a few papers." I answered, "Perhaps not, but it will educate Whitewater and by and by people will want the Gazette. It is usually the first paper to bring us the news." I congratulate you upon your enterprise.

Yours respectfully,
A. H. YODER

Chamber of Commerce Approves Efforts to Get Mileage Rate

Efforts of the Inter-state Commercial Traveler company of Chicago to secure a universal railroad mileage for passengers of two and one-half cents per mile, are being vigorously supported by the local Chamber of Commerce. In a letter sent to the Chicago company this morning five reasons for the endorsement of the mileage rate are given by the directors, as follows:

"1st—Because the manufacturers and commercial travelers are whole-sale buyers of mileage.

"2nd—The railroad can figure on $30,000 commercial travelers on the road almost twelve months in the year, selling goods throughout the United States.

"3rd—The mileage being used by the commercial traveler is for business (not for pleasure) creating freight for the railroads, which is the greater part of revenue, without any extra cost to the railroad.

"4th—The money invested by the manufacturer, commercial traveler in mileage books amounts to many millions of dollars. The passenger who travels on the railroads have the use of the money for months without interest.

"5th—A universal mileage book covering the United States and one-half cent per mile, instead of three cents (the local fare) will be offset by facilitating the army of commercial men and the firms they represent in getting over their territories, thereby increasing the volume of the manufacturers receiving the benefits."

Popular Capital Society Girl Is Bride of British Officer

Washington, Jan. 9.—About the most interesting thing that the world has done recently is to attend Sara Price Collier's wedding. She married into the British navy, Lieutenant Charles Gordon-Fellowes, R.N. and it has been called quite the prettiest wedding of the year and that is saying a great deal, for Washington has seen some very interesting weddings in the past year and each in turn has been called "the prettiest of the year."

It was a high noon wedding at St. Thomas's. At least it was meant for a high noon wedding, but the bride was late.

The procession headed by the groom, the Rev. C. Ernest Smith, who was to perform the ceremony, and to full vested choir. When finally the bride arrived and the doors were flung open the entire gathering stood at attention while the high, low voices sang "The Star Spangled Banner" and most of it remained standing while the bride procession moved up one aisle of the church.

The procession passed between two lines of British soldiers, all in uniform and all as rigidly at attention as wooden Indians. When the party had reached the chancel and ranged itself in front of the altar the soldiers fell in in columns of two, and passed out, resuming formation outside the church.

Immediately behind the choir came the bridesmaids.

The bride herself, who followed her mother of honor on the arm of her cousin and godfather, Franklin Roosevelt, assistant secretary of the navy, was lovely in a gown of old French brocade in a design of silver wheat, made on rather clinging lines, and glistening with trimmings of pearls and diamonds.

Besides singing "The Star Spangled Banner" and the "Lohengrin" wedding music, the choir boys sang a duet during the service, and the bride and groom.

Mrs. Charles Gordon-Fellowes.

chimes played merrily the while, and then as bride and bridesmaids faced around, the assemblage was once more brought to its feet while the boys sang "God Save the King," after which the men of the wedding party who were in the service formed an arch with their swords for the bride and groom.

In the third place, you undertake

to punish all Lutheran churches who use the German language by refusing to print their church notices. Anything that is German comes under

your condemnation, including good,

law-abiding, loyal American citizens

whose misfortune it is to have been born of German parents. The writer

is as ready to condemn the policies and

practices of the German government as you are, but takes the position that you are utterly unreasonably and un-

just in directing your hatred of German against loyal men and women of German blood, who, according to a recent article appearing in your paper,

gave their sons as volunteers to the

thirtieth Division of our army,

called by the French "The Terrible

Brigade" because of their extraordinary valor on many fields of battle.

More than one-third of these boys,

according to your own statement,

came from German homes. When

the remnant of these boys return they are going to resent injustice and blind

hatred, for these are the boys who went to France to undo. They are above all things going to resent your

charge of disloyalty against their parents and their church, which, by the ministry of the church, they have

ministered to their bodily and spiritual

welfare in a more efficient manner

than any other Protestant church.

It seems to me that you would

serve the community better and gain

the good will and respect of your fellow citizens if, instead of employing

the Prussian plan of "strafing" you would adopt the American plan of fair

play to overcome and defeat the same

er to employ additional labor when

to clean as often and thoroughly as is

can superintend the work to get for

tion, no doubt, would be only too

willing to have the federation to take

this work over.

The definition of janitor is: a much

maligned person who works early and

late and gets no gratitude for his labors to make his numerous family

comfortable.

No one need worry about the farmer, nor his wife, nor his children,

Evansville News
 The Roll Call.
 Evansville, Jan. 8.—The "Roll
 Call" will be produced at the Magee
 Opera house next Tuesday evening,
 January 14, by the Evansville players
 and the Liberty chorus as beneficiaries
 of the local Red Cross society for civilian relief work. "The Roll Call"
 was composed especially for the Red Cross in its recent drive for membership. The means of the play is in inspiring poetic illustration of the outcome of the world war. Its production
 by the Evansville players sets the high water mark in their march toward the better things of the stage.
 The stage sets are extremely beautiful and are built after the very latest designs of the extra modern school
 of stagecraft. The lighting effects are secondary to the dramatic effect of "The Roll Call" have all been built especially for the event. Evansville people are promised a rare treat. There are a number of very beautiful musical selections in the music that add
 much to the general effectiveness of the production. The players are fortunate to have the assistance of the Evansville Liberty chorus in this distinct part of the program. Under the able direction of Mrs. V. A. Astell this organization has made an enviable reputation for itself and can be counted
 on to aid the players in rounding
 up the financial necessities of the Red Cross. The proceeds of the three proceeds will be given to the local branch of the Red Cross for certain relief work. How necessary that form of relief is will not be mentioned. The play will be on at the Ballard's on Monday and Tuesday, January 13 and 14. The persons and groups of the masque follow: The Mother, Mrs. Esther Franklin; the Daughter, Carl Young; the Soldier,

RICHIE, MITCHELL AND SAILOR FREEDMAN WILL FIGHT FRIDAY NIGHT

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] Milwaukee, Wis., Jan. 9.—After I get through with Richie Mitchell at the Milwaukee Auditorium tomorrow night it will be another match with Johnny Noye," said Sailor Freedman of Chicago in response to a query as to whether he would try and wipe out the mixup he had with Noye & Minnie spots last week. The St. Paul boy fought foul in that contest," continued Freedman, "or I would never have claimed a foul as I did in the eighth round. I had him beaten on points up to that time, but why should I try to avoid him? He claims I quit and all that rot, but I will get him again and there will be a different story, but it will not be in St. Paul. He will have to fight me at some neutral spot in Wisconsin or any other place outside of St. Paul. I have no fear of the Mitchell bout and think my chance of winning as good as any."

Freedman started training, or rather continued his work Monday at the Arcade gymnasium in Chicago and will be in fine shape for the match. Mitchell has been doing his work with his brother Frank at his home and at Larkin's gymnasium. He is down to weight now and is in better shape than when he boxed in London. One of the interesting bouts aside from the Mitchell-Noye fight is the Young Dennis and Ray Mayworm, both of this city. These boys are rivals and have $100.00 posted to make the weight. Dennis demands a big amount on account of Mayworm having failed to meet him once before on account of illness. They will battle at 132 pounds and the distance will be eight rounds.

There will be two prelims at six rounds each. A large delegation of Chicago fans are expected, over 150 reservations having already been made.

Most of the champion billiard players, as usual retained their title in the season of 1918. Frank Taberski beat Ralph Greenleaf of Monmouth, Ill. in pocket billiards, by a score of 450 to 355, thereby retaining the title. Greenleaf beat Joe Conannon recently in Flatware.

An interesting part of this match was that Conannon was leading up to the last block, by twelve points, when Greenleaf made a spurt and won, 1,000 to 924.

White Hope ran twenty-five in three-cushion billiards in San Francisco on January 8.

Alfred De Oro retained his three-cushion title by beating Charles Orie of Brooklyn at Havana on January 13, 150 to 149, only to lose it to Archie Kleckhefer on February 3 at Chicago, 150 to 120. On February 21 Kleckhefer won the American Billiard Players' Amateur Fund three-cushion tourney at Chicago, with ten games won and three lost.

On March 8 Corwin Huston of Detroit won the class A national amateur title, with four games won and one lost. David McAndrews, Jr., of Chicago, Charles Huddon of Michigan and Eugene Milburn of Detroit tied for second, with four won and two lost.

Augie Kleckhefer played five more matches after he had won the world's three-cushion title from Alfred De Oro. On March 15 he beat Bob Cannefax at Chicago, 150 to 145. On April 19 he defeated Pierre Maupoux at Chicago, 150 to 145.

On September 27 he beat Charles Orie at Chicago, 150 to 123. On November 8 he beat Charles Orie at Chicago, 150 to 123, and set a world's record of 132 innings. Again, on November 22 he defeated Bob Cannefax for a second time at Chicago, 150 to 105.

Pierre Maupoux won the Interstate three-cushion billiard league title at Cleveland on May 9. He defeated Orie Morningstar, 50 to 49, making his record forty-two won and seventeen lost.

Columbia university has appointed McLean Jacoby manager of the 1919 varsity nine. Jacoby, who is in the navy, fired the torpedoes that destroyed two Austrian submarines in the naval battle in the harbor of Pola.

Edward Gelsler, who is in the service, has been elected manager of next year's varsity football eleven, while Al Hassard will handle the affairs of the track team. W. S. Robinson will be the varsity crew director.

Watertown, Mass., claims the distinction of having the oldest, as well as the strangest golf club in America. It is known as the Midron club, and its course is laid out on a private lawn. The course measures but 175 yards, and has five holes, which are spaced off and named as follows: Architect's Angle, 123 feet; Juniper, 88 feet; The Cottage, 99 feet; Barber's Bog, 84 feet; and Akron, 43 feet. The cups are made of old tomato cans and the trophy is a can bearing a brass name plate. The record for the course is 23, and is held by a club consisting of hedges and children.

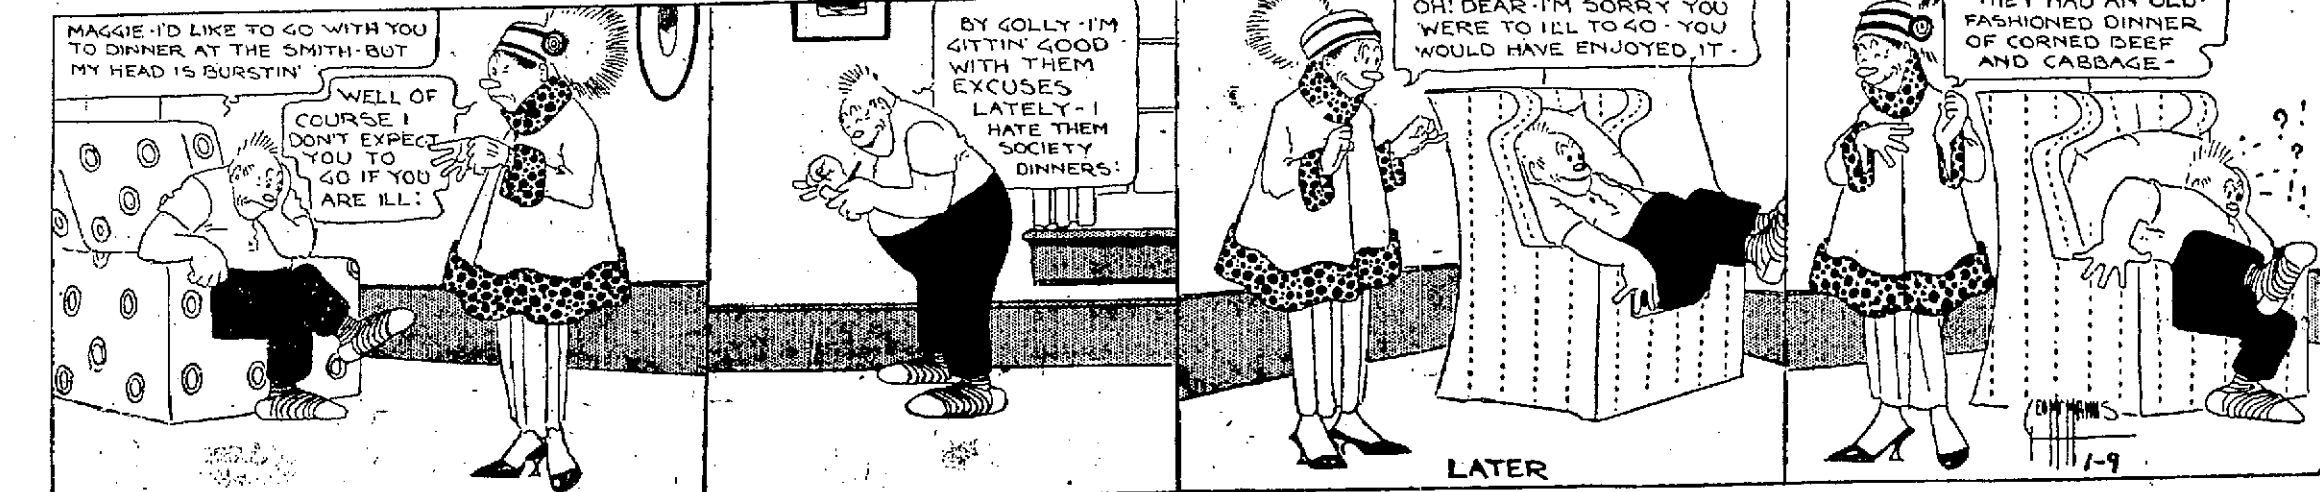

This strange club has but six members, all of whom live in an apartment house, which adjoins the clubhouse, and which adjoins the lawn, which serves as the course.

Fifteen individuals have won the national lawn tennis championship in a period of thirty-nine years. R. D. Sears and W. A. Larned lead with seven times each.

Milwaukee boxing promoters may stage the bout between Jack Dempsey and Mike Gibbons.

Fossil Fish in Texas. Fossil fish, from which the much-used ichthyol oil may be obtained, has been discovered in Texas. This material formerly came exclusively from Austria.

BRINGING UP FATHER

HIGH SCHOOL OPENS BASKETBALL SEASON AT MADISON, JAN. 17

Stiff Practice Being Held Daily—Schedule of Eight Contests Arranged—Prospects Bright For Crack Combination.

Practice is daily being held at the high school in preparation for the opening basketball game scheduled with the University Highs at Madison on January 17. Mr. Crabtree, manual training instructor at the school, will be coaching the team, is confident that the five who will start in the Madison game will be fully as good a team as Janesville has had in years.

The strength of the team will be centered around Captain Sprackling, a veteran. Nuzum and McDermott are also out nightly for practice and are showing good playing. Several, who started out in the class games held recently are out, including Powers, Decker, McLaugh, Fisher, Allen, Korst, Boruzack Ross and Blackie. Out of this material Coach Crabtree is expecting to pick a five which will hold up the reputation of Janesville as always having a crackerjack basketball team. The team taken as a whole will be light, but fast.

At the present date eight games have been booked for the season. Two games will be played with Beloit, one at Janesville and one at Beloit. Edgerton, Janesville and Freeport will also be taken on, making a stiff schedule ahead. Two dates are as yet not filled up, but is expected in the near future. The schedule for the season follows:

January 17—Janesville vs. U. of Wisconsin Highs at Madison.
January 24—Edgerton vs. Janesville at Janesville.
January 31—Janesville vs. Evansville at Evansville.
February 7—Open.
February 14—Janesville vs. Brodhead at Brodhead.
February 21—Open.
Janesville vs. Freeport at Freeport.
March 7—Brodhead vs. Janesville at Janesville.
March 14—Beloit vs. Janesville at Janesville.
March 22—Janesville vs. Beloit at Beloit.

LEAGUE BASKETBALL TEAMS AT "Y" BEGIN FIGHT FOR TROPHIES

The Y. M. C. A. Basketball League starts on its way today on the Y floor, with four teams playing this afternoon in the High school class and four tomorrow evening in the Employed Boys' class.

The captains and their teams follow:

High School League
Team 1—John Barlage, Captain, Russ Palmer, Ronald Smith, David Atwood, Henry Tall, Edward Hemming, Robert Jacobs.
Team 2—Kenneth Bick, Captain, John Austin, George Todd, Francis Crowl, Edwin Schott, Lloyd Morris, Robert Grubb, Frank Jones.
Team 3—Char. Newman, Captain, Wm. Mills, Robert Earle, Phillip Smith, John Smith, George Burpee, Frank Gravenor.
Team 4—Paul Ambrose, Captain, Harry Pierson, Harold Florin, Allen Earle, Walter Mathei, R. Connell, Elliott Dobson, Paul Balfe.

Employed Boys' League
Team 1—Ted Hager, Captain, Elwin Waters, Geo. Raubacker, Fred Luke, Leroy Dickinson, Dan McClusky, Edw. Steed, James Gillespie.

Four teams are in each class which compose a league in the two separate classes. Two games are to be played each evening until twelve games have been played, giving each team games with each other team. The standing of the teams are to be posted after each game recording the number of games won and lost and their respective places in the standing.

The winning team in each class will then meet in a three game series to be played in the evening when the championship of the "Y" will be at stake and handsome gold medals will be awarded to the members of the winning team.

The boys are restricted in their eligibility to 75 per cent attendance to all classes during the league and every player that is assigned to a team is to be played by his captain at least 30 minutes during the schedule. Players also are required to take part in the class work that precedes each game. No player of the high school first team will be eligible for the league after he has been selected by the high school, but he may play until he has been chosen by the "Y" when he must drop out of the league. This ruling is expected to permit the entrance of several of the candidates for the "Y" team into the league at the various times and it is calculated that some of them may be able to stay in the league long enough to establish their claim on the medals by the 75 per cent attendance, should the team win, although they drop out before the end.

Farm Accounts Simplified via The Daily Calendar Route

The easiest, simplest, accounting idea yet devised is a Calendar which gives you an opportunity to enter on the date of the month you buy or sell or pay out or receive any money, directly on the calendar pad, which totaled at the end of the month gives an exact record of all transactions. Each month is so arranged as to preserve the record throughout the year.

Inasmuch as the government requires an income report, each year it is necessary to keep a complete record of all transactions so that you may be able to intelligently answer the questions on the blank form which the government supplies you with. This calendar was designed for farm use especially and is so unique and complete and so easily handled that you wonder it had not been thought of long before.

The Farm Income Calendar will save more time and trouble than you ever dreamed of, unless you remember the perplexities of making your report last time without the aid of an income record.

The Farm Income Calendar leaves nothing to guesswork. No confusion about it, the entries can be made by anyone and the totaling at the end of the month is easy as can be.

One of these handy calendars, with one coupon clipped herewith, and mailed to you for 10c to cover cost. Start the year's record at once and be safe.
